

Hello Golfers and Friends,

10-16-12

The following is a press release about Ken Venturi being inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame next May sixth. Those of us who have met Ken agree that his induction is most definitely deserved. We wish Ken the best.

Subject: Congratulations Ken Venturi!

Ken Venturi named to Class of 2013

The World Golf Hall of Fame & Museum will enshrine Ken Venturi as part of its Class of 2013. The 1964 U.S. Open champion and long-time television broadcaster was selected through the Lifetime Achievement Category. Venturi will be inducted into the Hall of Fame at its Induction Ceremony on Monday, May 6, 2013, at World Golf Village in St. Augustine, Fla. The Ceremony will once again kick off THE PLAYERS Championship week.

Venturi forged an iconic career in the game, both on the course and in the broadcast booth. As a player, Venturi won 14 times on the PGA TOUR. Carpel tunnel syndrome forced him out of competitive golf after 13 other victories on the PGA TOUR and a Ryder Cup appearance on the winning U.S. Team in 1965. In 1968 Venturi joined the CBS television team. It began a 35-year career that saw him become one of the most respected voices in the game. In 2000, he received the PGA of America Lifetime Achievement in Journalism Award. That same year, he captained the U.S. Team to victory in the 2000 Presidents Cup competition.

Tickets and travel packages to the 2013 Induction Ceremony will be available on Nov. 1, 2012. For more information on the Induction Ceremony and the World Golf Hall of Fame, visit www.WorldGolfHallofFame.org.
